

Drawing on Carl's Talent

MALMÖ – The Duffy Agency has a new freelance artist, Carl Flint. An experienced illustrator and cartoonist Carl has recently moved to Malmö from London. When he is not busy helping us with our layouts, story boards, presentations and various clients' needs, Carl is busy working on a range of high profile projects for clients in the UK and US.

Carl is a versatile artist, noted for his distinctive caricatures of politicians and sporting celebrities in papers like The Guardian. He has contributed to numerous newspapers, magazines and fanzines in the UK and around the world. As an animation artist he has worked with Pete Bishop on a range of projects including Spheriks and Toon Disney. He has also collaborated with the writer Ian Carney on several cartoon strips including Ken Alone and Chloe and the Rat. And most recently, he created the character property 'Body Beasts' in collaboration with Renée Clive, which is the subject of a global book deal signed with Chicken House in the autumn of 2003.

If you would like to see more of Carl's work, give him a call at +46 (0)768 66 12 30 or visit his website, www.carlflint.com. Better yet hire him to illustrate your next project.
